

Landholder Awareness Event

Small Block Diversity

Wed November 9.

9:30am—11:30am

Come Join Us!

SLCMA are inviting interested landholders to join us for a tour of the Ted Malone Rural Skills Centre showcasing diversity on small properties and demonstrating an integrated approach to sustainable land management. The tour will include:

- Aquaponics
- Poultry
- Grazing
- Food Gardens
- Bees

Meet at the Ted Malone Rural Skills Centre .

L1 Breen St Sarina.

Wear closed-in shoes and bring a hat.
Morning Tea will be provided.

RSVP by Friday Nov 4, contact:
Sarina Landcare Catchment Management Association
Email: coordinator@sarinalandcare.org.au
Ph.: 4956 1388

Central QLD Coast
Landcare
Network

Department of Environment and Heritage Protection

This project was funded by the Queensland Government's Everyone's Environment grants program.

Great state. Great opportunity.

"Building Resilience of Natural Areas and Sustainable Land Management on Small Properties Project (the Peri Urban Project) is an initiative of the Central Queensland Coast Landcare Network, funded through Queensland Government's 'Everyone's Environment Grants'"